Thought's to Ponder

"I will go to the Lord and confess my fault." PS 32:5

There is tremendous freeing of the soul in confession. God invites us to unburden our souls because he will forgive us. God's grace more than covers deep quilt over anything we have done. Amazing grace indeed—forgives the worst things—provides freedom.

"Mercy Lives in actions and helps us to be Transformed by the Spirit. It's up to each of us to seize this moment by committing our hearts, our minds, and our souls to meet, know, and love Christ as we work together to fully realize the vision, mission and sacramental life of the Church in the years to come. — Bishop Gerald Barnes

Once a year, our bishop invites each of us to make a commitment to support the work of our diocesan programs and ministries that enhance our church by helping all of God's children build deeper and more meaningful relationships with Him.

This effort is a means by which we can all work together to care for the church by sharing the gifts God has granted us. Our parish goal is 100% participation. We welcome you to join us in joyfully supporting the DDF Annual Appeal. Please take time this week to reflect and pray about the blessings you are called to share with your Catholic family.

CHOICE

"If you choose you can keep the commandments," Sirach tells us. God "has set before you fire and water; to whichever you choose, stretch forth your hand" (Sirach 15:15, 16). This is a great mystery: God does not control us so completely that we cannot choose our own path. We have certain boundaries, of course, but no one but we can choose our way within those boundaries.

In today's reading from Matthew's Gospel, Jesus reminds us of our freedom and our responsibility for our lives. He calls us to look beyond the words of the commandments, all the way to their meaning. Look beyond the adultery to the selfishness that poisons our love. Look beyond the murder to the anger that eats away at our compassion. Look beyond the perjured testimony to the lies and deception that drive our behavior.

Our vocation is to choose life for ourselves, and to choose a path through our part of the world that helps make life possible and more abundant for others as well. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.
